

I support retention of the morse code testing requirement.

At least 5 WPM code proficiency should be retained as an absolute minimum for amateur license in the higher grades. At the highest Amateur license grade I would consider 13 words per minute to be the minimum which should be required.

I strongly oppose elimination of the Morse Code Requirement for Amateur Licensing in the United States.